

Quality of life research: An interdisciplinary discussion

Co-hosted by the School of Economics and NZ Work Research Institute

Friday, 26 May 2017

8:30am – 1pm

WF711

Time	Presenter	Paper
9:30am	Larissa Lorimer Research Assistant, CDSA	Workforce Wellbeing in the United Kingdom
	Roshen Kulwant BBUS PG student, School of Economics	Measuring vulnerability on a sub-national level: A case study of New Zealand
10:15am	Dan Weijers Lecturer in Philosophy, University of Waikato	Does increasing national happiness require decreasing freedom or determining social values?
11am	Morning tea
11:20am	Roy Smollan Lecturer in Management, AUT	Stressful organisational change: A qualitative study of causes, consequences and coping
12:05pm	Dr Talita Greyling University of Johannesburg	Regional disparities in non-economic quality of life in South Africa: convergence or divergence?
12:50pm	Closing comments
1pm	Finish	